

“Go therefore and make disciples of all nations!” Matthew 28:16-20

The details and location of the Ascension are shrouded in mystery. St. Matthew tells of the commissioning of the disciples but does not describe an ascension. He concludes with Jesus' words, “And behold I am with you always, until the end of the age.” Mark says simply that “the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up to heaven” Luke places the event at Bethany and says Jesus raised his hands and blessed the disciples and “parted from them and was taken up to heaven.” John makes no mention of an ascension. In the beginning of the Book of Acts Luke suggest that Jesus and his apostles were in Jerusalem where he gave them some final instructions and adds, “as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight.” One thing seems clear: Jesus was no longer visibly with his apostles but he left to them, and through them to us, the responsibility to spread his message and complete his mission. The question for us is: How are we doing with that? Some day, somewhere, Jesus will ask.

From the desk of Fr. Mark Toups: Between Divine Mercy Sunday and Pentecost Sunday, the celebration of our 40th Anniversary as a diocese, Bishop Fabre has called for an intentional time of prayer for each of our church parishes in the diocese. For the next 39 days, starting April 24 (until June 1), he is inviting us to join him in prayer each day for a different church parish in the diocese. You can find a Church Parish Novena Card in the back of church. There is a daily prayer on the card, as well as what church parish to pray for each day. May we join Bishop Fabre and all the faithful during this intentional time of prayer for the renewal of our parishes.
