

What's Coming: September 2017

Parish Social Ministry Month: September

This September the diocese is gearing up for parish social ministry month. The Catholic Church from antiquity is the greatest advocate for social ministry. Matthew 25 teams are organized to help in the wake of disasters. St. Vincent de Paul societies help parishioners make their ends meet. Parish Social Ministry is not about eliminating poverty; it is about us pooling our resources to help our brothers and sisters. If you want to learn or do more see <http://www.htdiocese.org/catholic-charities>

WhyWeBelieve: September 10th

WhyWeBelieve is about to go live. Have you signed up at <http://htdiocese.org/whywebelieve>. Labor Day: September 4th

Come out and support the St. Ann Knights of Columbus for the Chicken dinner sale. Tickets will be available this weekend after mass. Supporting the Knights of Columbus supports a host of events at St. Ann Parish. For more information, see our local Knights.

Louisiana Priest Convention: September 19th-21st

For three days, every two year the priest of the Ecclesiastical Province of New Orleans [all of Louisiana] get together for fellowship and formation. Please pray for us during these three days.
