

PASTOR'S NOTES:*Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I am still numb and speechless with emotions from the celebration of 32th Ordination Anniversary and Retirement. I was touched because many people (over 500 people, Bishop Shelton Fabre, 45 Priests, 5 Deacons, 50 Religious) came out to wish me well and "appreciate" my ministry.

At the Mass, there were 5 people- Jenny Authement, Betty Leonard, David Bienvenue, Randolph Bascle, Christine Naquin - who talked about how Fr. Ty handled the parish on ministry, financial and improvement since July 1, 2004. All of these 5 people have done an excellent expression and brought my memory back!

Then Bishop Shelton J. Fabre expressed his words about my ministry and retirement and thanked you, parishioners.

I deeply appreciate Bishop Shelton J. Fabre for allowing me to be the celebrant of my 32nd years of ordination anniversary. I will not have a chance to celebrate in the public in the future as I did on Sunday, May 28, 2017.

I thank my brother priests, deacons, religious, friends, former and present parishioners, and family members

Thanks, Very Rev. Joshua Rodrigue for an excellent homily! Thanks, Deacon Larry Oney, Deacon of the Gospel and the Mass; Deacon Stephen Brunet for the Master of Ceremony; the choirs: St. Ann Choir and the Daughters of the Holy Sister Choir; The Acolytes: Mr. Alton Neil and Mr. Claude Triche; The Seminarians and Altar Servers; The Hospitality Team, the Decoration Team, the Reception Team and those involved in the event, especially Mr. & Mrs. Adrian Matherne for the invitations and the programs.

The number 13th pastor of St. Ann Catholic Church, Bourg, Louisiana will be gone into the past. As the song, "God, You Did Not Make A Mistake", God, you proved to others that you are in charge of my life. I am in your hands. God put me to work though I am undeserving.

I would like to say that you- Parishioners of St. Ann- You are a wonderful people whom I enjoyed working with and for these 13 years since July 1, 2004 to June 30, 2017. You welcomed me with open arms and hearts. You accepted me as your son, brother, and relative. You made me feel like I was one of you.

With your support and working together, we have done many things for our parish and for God. We have moved St. Ann Catholic Church into a new chapter. You have helped me and made me grow in my spiritual life as a leader.

After the Eucharistic Celebration, the reception was a joyful event. The St. Ann Parish Center was crowded. There was no more room to sit and people had to stand! The foods and desserts were plenty and different kinds!

Thanks to those who came. Thanks to those who sent their notes, cards and gifts.

- I deeply appreciate your support- you parishioners, the Parish Pastoral Council, Finance Committee, Stewardship Committee, and all those who volunteered their time and talents to the Church. Thanks to Mr. Douglas Chauvin Jr. for his help with Traffic Control.

- To the Staff of St. Ann, I deeply appreciate your Working With Me FOR the parishioners of St. Ann. You were my right hand for my ministry. You were extremely patient with me. Because of your dedication, you have made my ministry much easier and have given me encouragement to serve others with a joyful heart.

- I thank each and every one, especially those who have given me opportunities in finance to serve others, especially for the parishioners of St. Ann Catholic Church.

Looking back on my ministry at St. Ann since July 1, 2004 to June 30, 2017, I am confident to say that I have taken my responsibilities seriously. Recently the project to demolish and level our property on the bayou side and put up the boundary fence was the completion of my last project. After the payment for the project, we - St. Ann Catholic Church- still have $358,882.81 in the Central Fund of the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux Diocese. Over all, I have done my duty as the Pastor of St./ Ann.

I am a human being! I seek forgiveness from anyone and everyone whom I have hurt through my words and actions. If I hurt your feelings, it was not my intention, and I ask you all to forgive me. I also ask you to regard my asking for forgiveness to those whom I can not reach.

May God, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, bless and reward you and your family because of what you have done for His unworthy servant, Rev. Ty Van Nguyen.

In Jesus' Love,
Rev. Ty Van Nguyen
