

“ . . . for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the little ones”

Mt 11:25-30

The deacon explained to a group of seven year old's preparing for First Reconciliation and First Eucharist that God sent them into the world with a unique array of talents, abilities and gifts that God wanted them to spend a lifetime to discover, accept, develop and use to the best of their ability for their own benefit and for the benefit of others. He asked the class “What would the world be like if everyone was using all of their talents, abilities and gifts to the best of their ability for themselves and others; accepting the benefit of the gifts others had to offer; everyone happy with their own gifts and happy for others who had different gifts. One little seven year old girl in the front row quickly raised her hand and said, “Oh, deacon, that would be heaven!” The little girl reminds us that intelligence and knowledge are not a guarantee of wisdom and that the learned sometimes outsmart themselves, while the “little ones” can be very wise.

Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; You are still the master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O Loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm less eternity awaits us. Amen.

By the Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder (1895-1981)
Second Bishop of Lafayette, Louisiana
