

“Master, it is good that we are here. Let us make three tents,
One for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.”

Matthew 17:1-9

The Transfiguration occurred just after Jesus predicted his suffering and death and explained the conditions of discipleship. When Peter observed Jesus change in appearance and conversing with Moses, the Great Law Giver, and Elijah, the Great Prophet, he was at first frightened, but then felt privileged and secure. He proposed to make three tents or dwellings. It is possible Peter wanted to keep Jesus safe. He may have wanted to avoid the risk of discipleship. We sometimes want to build a tent and stay in our comfort zone, rather than imitate Jesus and risk the consequences of being a disciple of Jesus. That is particularly true when we feel called to be good stewards of God world by fully sharing of our time, abilities and resources. In the end, the Father leaves us no choice, “This is my chosen Son; listen to him. (From: "Bulletin Bites")
